YOUNG AT HEART SENIORS

SENIORS IN MARCH

Faith and Begorrah we dunnit again! On March 7th, we celebrated St. Paddy's Day our traditional corned beef and cabbage dinner, prepared by Carol Dean, Sherlin Grill, Joan Morris, and Betty Cones. Our tables were bedecked with shamrocks, leprechauns, and gold coin candy by Leah Towers.

Mayor Castleton urged us to attend the town meeting at 7pm Thursday about our ambulances. Then President Marla Coons welcomed our merry group, including new members, Kathy and Daniel Forbes, and Ron Bray! And welcome back Dick Hallsey! She thanked Daniel for coming early to help set up, Janice Boswell for checking our vitals.

Then we pledged allegiance to our beautiful American flag, sang "My Country Tis of Thee" and Happy Birthday to all our March celebrants.

Sherlin Grill asked the Lord's blessing on the food, then we ate "the whole thing." Dennis Wahlberg tested our memories during dinner with a fun slogan game. Leah played an Irish medley on her accordion. Patrick Mahoney (a real Irishman and born on St. Patrick's Day, a twin-to Mike, of course) told us his true story, and true trivia of Irish ancestors! Harry and Helen Russell won the prize for answering most trivia correctly. Door prizes were won by Janice Boswell, Harry Russell, Patrick Mahoney, and Dick Hallsey.

Announcements: A board meeting will be held at Marla Coons house on Wednesday, March 31, at 10 am. Janice Boswell announced a fundraiser for Smiles for Salote on March 17. Anna Gillespie announced Bingo on Saturday March 10, 7 pm at the ELKS Lodge.

The next Young at Heart Luncheon will be April 7th at Noon.
