Young at Heart Seniors

Seniors in November

As we entered the building on November 18, the aroma of turkey and all the trimmings was in the air, of course the tables were beautiful thanks to our Leah Towers.

President Grace Conder led us in the "Pledge of Allegiance, and Betty Cones in "God Bless America."

Carol Dean offered the blessings of the food, and our thanksgiving feast began. Our assigned potluck was scrumptious as always!

The winner of the drawing was Lloyd Conder, Serena Neese, Anna Gillespie, Sherlin Grill, and Grace Conder.

Marla Coons and Betty Cones led us in Thanksgiving Trivia, how ads can remind us of God (fifth graders assignment) and the singing of "Over the Freeway to Grandmother's House," and a geriatric version of "My Favorite Things."

Just a short business meeting: One the sick list is Dorothy Allinson and Sarah Barlow, (We are so glad Lloyd is recovering).

Our Christmas party will be on December 16. It will be catered and the school will bring entertainment. Remember a $10.00 gift exchange. December 2 will be potluck.
