Young at heart Seniors

The Young at Hearts had only one meeting in December, but it was super duper! Nutcrackers and Santas adorned the tables, the smell of ham dinner in the air, and absolute compassion folk were attending us old folks.

President Grace Conder welcomed all, led us in the "Pledge of Allegiance" and "God Bless America." Only one December birthday – guess who_ we sang to Grace, herself! She reminded us to decide on a new president – she is tired and re-tired!

Announcements: No meetings in January while the kitchen floor gets recovered. A podiatrist will come to the Memorial building on Monday, December 22 at 1pm; a signup sheet was passed around.

Janis Boswell extended thank you's from the school board for our support of the school activities.

Door prizes were won by Blaine Holdaway, Daniel Jacobson (of Absolute Compassion), Helen Russell, Serena Neese, and Janis Boswell.

Mr. McDonald brought his Tintic High School drama students to perform for us. They are learning awareness of the sufferings of others and to depict it in drama and music. ~~Kudos!~~

See you in February.
