VETERAN'S MEMORIAL GETS A FACELIFT

Jeanie and Rick Hopes, Joanie and Kent Lambson, Joanie's grandson Owen Larson, took on the job of restoring the crosses for the veteran's memorial at the Eureka City Cemetery. They took all of these crosses and spent hundreds of hours sanding and painting them. Jay Evans and his shop class even helped out by making a few more crosses for those that were missing. Then they took and put vinyl lettering on them of the names of all the Veterans. They received donations from Nancy Milne and Anna Gillespie (even though she did not want me to mention her name, she deserves credit too) which helped purchase the new flags.

They enlisted the help of Andrew Grimstead who completed the task of cleaning up the area and drilling and installing all the new pipes that hold the crosses and flags with the help of his family and the Boy Scout troop 111, for his Eagle Scout project.

A HUGE thank you to all that helped make it look amazing!

YOUNG AT HEART SENIORS

SENIORS IN JUNE

On the first day of June, the Young at Heart Club met in the LDS church cultural hall. President Grace Conder welcomed us and led us in the “Pledge of Allegiance to the Flag.” Marla Coons led us in “God Bless America.” Then we sang “Happy Birthday” to our May and June folks, Bonnie Brantley, Dick Hallsey, Jill Snell, Susan Fields and Dorothy Allinson.

Grace led the business meeting. Planning for Senior Citizens of the year dinner on the 15th, hope for local catering. Then we’ll not meet again until September.

On the sick list is Dorothy Allinson and Linda Hope. A thank you note from Tarsula Lucas’ family was read.

Conders’ will soon move to Montana for Lloyds health. Who will keep us Seniors going! Serena Neese and Marla Coons agreed to be our leaders! (VEEP and president).

Betty Cones offered the blessing and we had a wonderful potluck luncheon.

Thanks to our nurse, Preston, from AMA who came and checked our vitals!

SENIOR CITIZEN OF THE YEAR

At last we had our Senior Citizen of the Year party! Guess who the are? All OF US! But most of all, our dear Grace and Lloyd Conder, who’ve served us long and well. President Marla Coons presented them with two keepsakes . A book of 1,000 Senior Moments and a good luck lady bug paperweight. Bon voyage when you move to your new abode, Conders’

On the afternoon of June 15th, we gathered at the B’s Hangout and had a delicious meal, complete with apple pie. W should have our annual picnic in the park in August; will telephone you all. September 21st would be our first regular meeting at the Memorial
