YOUNG AT HEART SENIORS

SENIORS IN MARCH

Marla Coons welcomed us Seniors on April 4th to a room full of bunnies and flowers (thank you Leah Towers).. We pledged allegiance to our flag and sang "My Country 'Tis of Thee."

Announcements were about the funeral on Saturday at Tintic School District. Bill Stewart's marker was placed on that day (Wednesday) at 3 p.m. in the Eureka Cemetery. Sick list: Denny Wahlberg injured his shoulder.

Max Berry asked the blessing on the food and on us seniors, and we had our always yummy potluck luncheon.

Then Anna Gillespie gave the treasurer's report. Marla gave us a list of proverbs ala children's "moral of the story" answers. They are no fools! Door prizes were won by Anna Gillespie, Joan Morris, Kathy Forbes, and Daniel Forbes. We finished with April Fool stories.

May 2nd, we will have Hawaiian Haystacks.

ALOHA SENIORS

Hawaiian Haystacks' were the menu at our May 2nd luncheon, an assigned potluck, topped off with pineapple upside down cake. And "Sherriff cupcakes." (Thank you Craig Ryan).

Marla Coons welcomed us, Craig and Bart Ryan, Jana Workman, and new members to our merry band. Georgia and Larry Ewell, and the return of Fawn Fife, and Don and Barbara Fallick.

After pledging allegiance to our American Flag, we sang "My Country Tis of Thee," then "Happy Birthday to Jill Snell! Janice Boswell was thanked for coming early to check our vitals, and Daniel and Kathy Forbes for helping set up. Anna Gillespie read the treasurer's report and Betty Cones read the minutes of past meetings.

Marla informed us that Dick Hallsey is now in assisted living in Spanish Fork, and Dorothy Allinson in in Nephi hospital. Visits would lift their spirits.

We were pleased to have Craig Ryan explain his goals of service as a Juab County Sherriff, if elected. A local law enforcement officer for us locals!

Afton Berry asked the blessing on our food and our community, and we ate Hawaiian Haystacks. Then Marla led us in "Old Timers Bingo." Prizes were won by Dennis Wahlberg, Larry Ewell, and Anna Gillespie. The Young At Heart Club will take a break for the summer and will resume August 6th at the picnic in the park . Aloha.
