Introduction/Interview of City Council Member Candidates.

We had only one applicant: Scott Pugh. Mr. Pugh stood and gave a background of his experiences and the reasons he wanted to serve on the Council. Council Member Snell thanked him for applying saying it takes a special person to apply. He asked him what the greatest need is or what he sees as a priority. Scott replied he had noticed items are being worked on but are moving slowly. There are things in the city that appear to be run down and need to be fixed up. Council Member Evans said he was going to ask for his observations but felt it was answered already.
